

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

GFWC Special Programs: Signature Program: Chairman – Becky Pollard

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club Donated to GFWC Success for Survivor's Scholarship; sponsored District Special Award; supported Safe Harbor, Bon Secours Richmond Foundation and Virginia Repertory Theatre in human trafficking prevention programs.

Best Single Project: no award

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club Donated to GFWC Success for Survivor's Scholarship; sponsored District Special Award; supported Safe Harbor, Bon Secours Richmond Foundation and Virginia Repertory Theatre in human trafficking prevention programs.

Best Single Project: Henry Clay Woman's Club of GFWC Adopted a Hanover Safe Place family to provide a Merry Christmas by providing gifts, gift cards and wrapping supplies.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club Held a program with a speaker from Richmond Justice Initiative and donated; supported Safe Harbor's Walk to End Human Trafficking with 2 team leaders raising $2,550, collecting sports bras and participating in Giving Tuesday.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Essex County, GFWC Supported The Haven shelter with donations of money, $350 of clothing and household goods to their Thrift Shop and collecting soda can pop tops.

GFWC Special Programs: Advocates for Children Chairman – Joy Matkowsky

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall Junior: GFWC Powhatan Junior Woman's Club This club filled 6 backpacks with school supplies, packed weekend food bags for children, collected and donated books to needy children in rural areas, attended the GFWC Advocates for Children Webinar and donated plastic to a local Girl Scout Troop to help them achieve their Bronze award.

Best Single Project Junior: River City Junior Woman's Club This club packed, assembled and gifted 7 Easter baskets for children in need through Worthdays, an organization that helps needy children find and feel their worth.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: no award

Best Single Project: Henry Clay Woman's Club of GFWC This club celebrated Advocates for Children Week by making and gifting treat bags to members and coaches of River City Stars – a special needs cheering squad in Central VA.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: no award

Best Single Project: no award

CSP Arts and Culture: Chairman

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Pamunkey Woman's Club collected art supplies for the Art Therapy Program at MCV/VCU Cancer Center. Paint supplies allowed expression of feelings on canvas.

Best Single Project: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club collected art supplies to donated to two local day care centers to encourage art participation for children.

Affiliate: no award

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: no award

Best single Project: no award

Affiliate: no award

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: The Tri Club Woman's Club made masks, scrub caps, baby and lap quilts, hats and scarves. The items were distributed to hospitals, doctor's offices, homeless shelters, and nursing homes.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Powhatan County, Inc. made 185 Comfort Pillows for Post-operative Breast Cancer patients via social-distanced donations and instructions. These were distributed through Women's Wellness Group. (judged by a neutral party)

Affiliate: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club researched preschool appropriate shapes and figures to create black white and coloring pages for young children awaiting surgery and appointments for Operation Smile.

CSP Civic Engagement and Outreach: Chairman Tricia Duvall

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: Metropolitan Richmond Woman's Club This club supported Rebuilding Together Richmond, Feed More, Richmond Friends of the Homeless, Soles4Souls, Atlantic Outreach Group, Operation Christmas Child, Kiva and the GFWC Virginia State Project

Best Single Project: GFWC Capitol Woman's Club This club supported The Haven, a day shelter for men in Charlottesville, VA. They supplied sanitizing wipes, Chapstick, underwear, socks and gloves. 41 packages were donated and delivered to The Haven.

Affiliate: GFWC Regency Woman's Club This club supported Canine Companions by sending donations from their club treasury.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Best Overall Junior: GFWC Powhatan JWC This club supported Chippenham Hospital Radiography Department sanitation crew by providing snacks. They provided 17 Thanksgiving Dinner Food bags complete with a holiday meal and a $10 gift card in each bag. They supported Feeding Powhatan, Puritan Cleaners, Pearl Watkins Center and had a speaker from Senior Connections Powhatan at their meeting.

Best Single Project Junior: GFWC River City JWC This club supported Mardi Bras which is put on by a local organization called "Into the Neighborhood". This organization supplies items to homeless, low or restricted income and incarcerated women. This club spent $200 and donated 40 pairs of underwear, 27 bras and 1,200 period products (tampons, pads, etc.).

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: TIE GFWC Worthington Woman's Club and GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club Worthington supported Feed More, The Crossings Assisted Living Home, CCHASM (Chesterfield/Colonial Heights Ministries), Chesterfield Food Bank, Chesterfield Animal Shelter, Police Department, Wounded Warriors, women veterans at Hunter Holmes McGuire VA Hospital, Sweats for Vets and the Lee District Project. Ashcake supported Hanover Habitat For Humanity, Circles Ashland, St. Joseph's Villa, Hanover County Food Services at John M. Gandy Elementary School, Feed More, Hanover Christmas Mother, Red Nose Day, Blessing Bags for the Homeless, Hanover Health & Rehab, Free the Girls (bras), Closet at Patrick Henry High School for students in need and the Lee District Project Reachcycles

Best Single Project: GFWC Varina Woman's Club This club donated $360 in school supplies for SOAR 365 which is an organization that helps adults with mental disabilities.

Affiliate: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club This club supported UNICEF by collecting $82. They supported St. Jude Children's Hospital with a $100 donation. They supported Canine Companions by passing around a ceramic puppy for Pennies for Pups and collected $32.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This club supported Goochland Cares, SNAP program, Christmas Mother, Sweats for Vets, CASA and Habitat for Humanity. They made a reverse Advent Calendar food drive collecting food for 24 days. They collected soup for Goochland Cares pantry. They launched a virtual and/or drive-by food drive collecting food and delivering it to the pantry.

Best Single Project: The Tri Club Woman's Club This club supported Military Appreciation by supporting McGuire Hospital with items bought on a shopping spree including puzzles, word search books, craft items, yarn, needles, pens and more. They wrote 77 notes/cards of encouragement and gave $200 in Patriot Bucks for Bingo parties. For Christmas they collected 258 pairs of socks, 28 calendars, 53 paperback books and 365 signed cards and 168 unsigned cards.

Affiliate: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This club supported Canine Companions, Prevent Child Abuse America, Operation Smile and Shot@Life. They delivered 35 surgical gowns to Op Smile, planted a pinwheel garden and made a monetary donation to CCI.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

CSP Education and Libraries: Chairman Peggy Martin

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Capitol Woman's Club This Club supported day care for underserved children, and 'Change the World RVA', to support housing unstable high schoolers. They also ran a virtual book club.

Best Single Project: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club COMMUNITY SERVICE Best Single Project: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club This Club had a project at The Dooley School (St Joseph's Villa) to deliver "Birthday in a Bag" - all the supplies needed for a birthday party for a child who would not otherwise be able to celebrate.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Varina Woman's Club This Club gave $3,000 in scholarships, sent encouraging cards to teachers, as well as treat bags for the teachers and donated Dr Seuss books to the Children's Hospital. They also visited a museum and continued their book club.

Best Single Project: GFWC Worthington Woman's Club This Club supported ROAR: R = respect, O = organize, A = appropriate behavior, R = responsible behavior; the children are encouraged to behave by earning ROAR dollars for small gifts etc. which are donated by the Club.

Affiliate: no award

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This Club worked many hours to support their library, their schools by donating bottled water, clothes, books, plush animals, assisting teachers etc. and funded two scholarships.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Essex County GFWC This Club adopts a computer at their local library with a plaque showing their name. Despite the library being closed for many months, it was well used.

Affiliate: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This club gave a scholarship for one student to attend HOBY this year. The course was run virtually.

Best Overall: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester This Club supported their local schools in so many ways, especially paying attention to the difficulties created by Covid -19, collecting books, toys, pantry, and sanitary items and sending encouraging cards and notes for at-risk students.

Best Single Project Junior: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester When they saw the sadness of a high school year with no prom, this Club filled fifteen baskets with suitable gifts for graduates at their local high schools and donated a floral arrangement and sponsored five caps/gowns to support vulnerable students.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

CSP Environment: Chairman Linda Turner

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: Pamunkey Woman's Club This club had an "Energy Conservation" program concerning Energy Share information introducing them to the Dominion Energy Program. The club was also introduced to "Virginia Energy Sense .... Do It Yourself Guide". This guide showed the members the top ten efficiency upgrades for your home. This Club chairman shared recipes to make your own cleaning products such as scented all-purpose cleaner, brass cleaner and glass cleaner.

Best Single Project: Ashcake Woman's Club Again, because of COVID-19, this Club continued to communicate with their members through newsletter articles. Members were encouraged to investigate the website Earth911.com. The take-away message provided by this website: Through daily "earth-friendly" choices, every person has the power to make a positive difference. Funds were donated to the Blue Ridge Wildlife Center in the amount of $100. Also, thanks to one member of the Ashcake Woman's Club, they donated money to the Heifer Project which is one of our affiliate organization.

Affiliate: no award

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Worthington Woman's Club This club tries hard to recycle all that it is able. Members brought aluminum cans to the meeting or to the chairman during the pandemic. These cans are then given to the Buddy Break Program at the Southside Church of the Nazarene who uses them to raise funds for this program. Buddy Break Program gives parents whose children have disabilities an opportunity to have a break. The children participate in projects like art, music, playground activities, games, or reading. We were able to donate 4,000 cans.

Best Single Project: GFWC Varina Woman's Club In the Spring, members spent hours beautifying the front of Doorways. Doorways is a low-cost apartment building for patients and their families from out of town who are getting treatment at VCU/MCV. Several members make periodic visits to Doorways to clean up the kitchen and refill it with supplies. 20 pairs of old jeans (value $120.) were collected, cut up and sewn into quilts for the homeless.

Affiliate: no award

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club The GFWC Goochland Woman's Club has been very active in helping both Pet Lovers and the Animal Shelter, they purchased raffle tickets for fundraising events, as well as T-shirts and baseball caps, and participating in "Giving Tuesday"; these efforts totaling $695 in support. In addition, members supported the Goochland Animal Shelter by collecting dog and cat food, treats, cat litter, blankets/ towels, and mats for the animal shelter.

Best Single Project: no award

Affiliate: no award

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

CSP Health and Wellness: Chairman Judy Lee

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club This club had the President of Reachcycles come to speak and they donated $175 as well as donated cookies and gift bags for their distribution day. They bought 6 books of raffle tickets to benefit St. Joseph's Villa. The members cleaned out their houses and donated $40,811 worth of furniture, household goods and clothing to Thrift for Life with proceeds going to the Massey Cancer Center. They donated an additional $25 to Cancer Dancer. They held a Yoga class program with a donation to the teacher of $25. They volunteered to pack backpacks for food for children to have over the weekend which was shut down after 3 months due to Covid. They sponsored and supported a single mother who was a recovering drug addict with funds for food, clothing, and bills for her and her 15-year-old daughter. They spent $1,425 and 60 hours on this project.

Best Single Project: GFWC Regency Woman's Club This club participates in the Annual Easter Egg Hunt that benefits Camp Easter Seal. Because of Covid, the actual event was cancelled however members worked hard to convince the sponsors to donate their normal donations and they were auctioned virtually that raised funds totaling over $40,000. The Club spent 60 hours on this project and was directly responsible for obtaining $3,450 of sponsors and raffles.

Affiliate: GFWC Pamunkey Woman's Club and GFWC Regency Woman's Club

Operation Smile: GFWC Pamunkey Woman's Club spent 12 hours collecting $300 worth of items needed for Operation Smile and delivered them to their headquarters.

SHOT@LIFE: GFWC Regency Woman's Club donated $25.

Best Single Project Junior: GFWC River City Junior Woman's Club This Club donated $500 to the American Autoimmune Related Diseases Association in memory of one of their members who had died of the disease. This in hopes the funds will help in research, education, public awareness, and patient services.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club This Club's Health Committee wrote 6 articles for their newsletter, encouraged members to wear red for Heart Month and to walk in their own communities because of Covid. 20 of their members walked for 874 hours. 3 members spent 32 hours and donated $128 in materials and made 128 masks that were donated to local medical facilities. A card writing campaign resulted in 458 cards (some handmade from kits) were sent to local special needs adults and some were sent to the program Cards of Kindness. They provided a Yoga program at a meeting where members participated both in person and by Zoom. They donated $2500 to Hanover Interfaith Free Clinic who treats the less fortunate of the community with medical and dental service.

Best Single Project: Henry Clay Woman's Club of GFWC This Club celebrates birthdays monthly for the patients at Alpha House by having club members provide refreshments, a small gift and a birthday card to each birthday patient every month. The members also decorate a tree each holiday for all staff, patients, and visitors to enjoy. Due to Covid, they were not allowed to actually go into the facility, but they did donate snacks, decorations for the tree and birthday gifts, cards and treat bags for the staff.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Affiliate: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club ST. JUDES This club donated $100

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This club made masks for military families stationed at a base in Japan and another 1,645 masks for local nursing homes, post office employees and others. They provided lunch for a staff of 50 at a local senior care facility as well as activity items such as books and puzzles for the residents They had a Yoga class to relieve stress at a meeting where 19 members attended. On First Responders Day, this club provided healthy snacks to 7 of the counties fire and rescue stations as well as the sheriff's office. They provided dinners twice for a staff of 15 at another local senior care center spending $152 in In-Kind funds and 36 hours was spent in preparation and delivery. They donated $325 for Relay for Life and spent $240 buying raffle tickets they benefitted St. Joseph's Villa.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Essex County GFWC This club's members spent 74 hours volunteering at local hospitals and nursing homes.

Affiliate: Woman's Club of Powhatan County and The Tri Club Woman's Club

The Woman's Club of Powhatan County, Inc. donated $500.to Operation Smile and $100 to St. Jude's.

The Tri Club advised their members about the Shot@Life project at Walgreens Pharmacy. They gave a shot to the needy for every flu shot gotten there. 14 members got their flu shot there.

Best Overall Junior: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester The Club members walked in the virtual Susan G Komen More Than Pink Walk and raised $2,781. They donated paper products worth $172 plus $76 to Doorways. They volunteered for 60 hours at their local Food Bank and donated $1,331 in food. Members collected food, valued at $1,035 for 30 Thanksgiving baskets which were given to 30 families (10 in each of 3 schools). The members donated $991 worth of Christmas gifts that were given to residents without families in a local nursing home. Since they usually sing to them, one member walked around the outside and sang through a megaphone. Each member who has gotten a mammogram received Life Savers and a Brest Cancer button. Members walked in a virtual walk to End Alzheimer's and members also donated funds that netted $1,828. Members collected $1,295 worth of toys, clothes, diapers and gift cards and gave them to a Mother and her 2 children through Safe Harbor. They also donated $120 worth of wish list items on Amazon to help 8 families through Grace Home Ministries.

Best Single Project Junior: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester This Club purchased Christmas gifts for the residents (without families) of a local nursing home. Normally they deliver these in person and visit with them. Since they could not sing to them as usual, they had one member walk around the outside of the building singing into a megaphone. Members donated the items valued at $991 and spent 8 volunteer hours. This was their 6th year doing this project.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Advancement Areas- Communication and Public Relations: Chairman Joan Kremzir

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Pamunkey Woman's Club This club has a great Facebook page and has articles about club events printed in their local newspaper.

Best Single Project: no winner

Best Overall Junior: GFWC Powhatan JWC, Inc. Facebook page, promotes the club through branding (pins, car magnets, decals, etc.)

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club Facebook page and website for its annual walk/run plus a Facebook page for its members; zoom meetings; Federation logos in publications; meet most all CPR objectives.

Best Single Project: GFWC Worthington Woman's Club They publish a club profile that is given to prospective members and distributed at club events.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club Great Facebook page and website; uses an online webstore for sale of tickets, payment of dues, etc.; meets most all CPR objectives.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Essex County, GFWC Outstanding media relations with local newspaper.

Advancement Areas Leadership: Chairman 1st Vice-President Sally Cary

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club This club uses an "easy report form" and they share awareness of Federation happenings.

Best Single Project: Metropolitan Richmond Woman's Club This club purchased ZOOM to be able to have their club meetings.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Worthington Woman's Club (outside Judging used) This club uses their leadership chairman to plan 6 programs (educational and fun) for members, their handbook is published yearly which contains membership information and Federation Information.

Best Single Project: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club This club met COVID style using ZOOM to celebrate Federation Day, April 24th. They discussed the benefits of belonging to GFWC.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall GFWC Goochland Woman's Club This club purchased ZOOM for their meetings. They made finance guidelines for their club, educated members on the new CSPs, and voted online.

Best Single Project GFWC Goochland Woman's Club Used a very tech savvy club member to train those members who were technology challenged how to use ZOOM for meetings and voting.

Advancement Areas Leadership: Junior Chairman Kolly Blair

Best Overall Small Club: GFWC Powhatan Junior Woman's Club This club has 4 members involved at both the district and state levels including 1 member for SER. This club promotes leadership within their own club and Federation.

Best Overall Large Club: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester This club attended the GFWC VA reporting training to help them report in the new reporting areas that helped reinforced various projects and reporting opportunities for their club. This club has 3 members who are involved at the district and state levels.

Advancement Areas Legislation and Public Policy: Chairman Lynne Wherry

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: no award

Best Single Project: no award

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club This club asked members to register and get out early to vote safely. Encouraged members to join the GFWC Legislation Action Center, if not already. The club chairman also provided a local and State representative list and how to contact them to the club members.

Best Single Project: no award

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: The Tri Club Woman's Club This club was made aware of the makeup of the General Assembly and followed many bills during the session. Members joined the GFWC Legislative Action Center and supported GFWC bills by writing their representatives throughout the year.

Best Single Project: no award

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Advancement Areas Membership: Chairman 2nd Vice-President Brenda Jennette

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: Metropolitan Richmond Woman's Club Pearls & Pajamas, Country Christmas, & What's on Your Phone were themes for virtual socials. Door Prizes and Heart of MRWC Award retained members.

Best Single Project: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club A chart with years of service in Junior and General Clubs showed nine 50-year members and over 700 years of club work were celebrated.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Varina Woman's Club They had a Pandemic backyard movie night, a 50th Anniversary Celebration, and the outgoing president gave each member an apron embroidered with the club flower.

Best Single Project: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club Members provided a day of yard work all done in secrecy for a member battling cancer.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club They had In Person, Hybrid, and Drive-By Meetings. Members sneaked their Secret Santa gifts to the recipient, then they opened them during their ZOOM Social.

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Sandston Each member corresponded with members on their Yearbook page with emails, cards, or phone calls to stay connected. The President sent emails with member information.

Advancement Areas Membership: Junior Chairman Jennifer Hampton

Best Overall Small Club: GFWC River City JWC Supported membership with a 5-year anniversary celebration at Hotel Greene, Brewery Social, a "quarantine survival" wine delivery project & a donation in honor of a beloved club members passing.

Best Single Project Small Club: GFWC Powhatan Junior Women's Club Inc. Held a campfire social for members. Participants contributed to the meal which was cooked completely on the campfire. A very creative way to meet in person and socialize within COVID-19 guidelines.

Best Overall Small Club: Junior Federated Women's Club of Chester Hosted a very successful new member social and welcomed 17 new members, held creative socials while complying with COVID-19 guidelines and created a Secret Sister Gift Exchange. They also recognized a Clubwoman of the Month throughout the year in person and on social media, Awarded The "SHE" Award to one outstanding member, participated in meal trains to support members who just had babies and distributed "Birthday

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Babe" gifts each month all while continuing to meet virtually and keeping in contact through a monthly newsletter.

Fundraising: Chairman Carol Outten

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Capitol Woman's Club This Club continued their "Bean Soup Project", despite COVID 19 restrictions, and sold 100 bags of soup mix. Beans were purchased, measured, gathered into bags, and decorated for the Holidays. Stove top, and crockpot recipes were included. The bags were sold to family, friends, and fellow Clubwomen.

Best Single Project: GFWC Capitol Woman's Club This Club continued its dining club until terminated due to COVID 19. Different restaurants are selected, and members/spouses attend as able. Various cuisines and socializing are enjoyed. Spouses DONATE a percentage of their restaurant bill to the Clubs philanthropic projects.

Best Overall Junior: GFWC Powhatan Junior Woman's Club INC. Club Held a First annual "Galantine's Tea". Members prepared all the food and refreshing tea for their guests. This Valentines' day themed event celebrated "Gal Pals": Mothers, Daughters, Sisters, Friends, Grandmothers, and Granddaughters. Members spoke about GFWC and their club. Ticket sales and a basket ticket drop raffle made this a successful fundraising event.

Best Single Project Junior: GFWC Powhatan Junior Women's Club Inc. Members sold three-dimensional laser cut wood ornaments depicting the shape of their county. They joined together to assemble and stain them. They were sold by word of mouth.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club This Club had to cancel its 16th annual harvest run due to COVID 19 restrictions. The solicitation letters normally sent to local businesses were rewritten to explain the situation and multiple donations were received in response from those businesses. Additionally, many participants offered their registration fees as a donation vs requesting reimbursement. A "GoFundMe" and Facebook fundraiser were established, and significant additional funds were received.

Best Single Project: GFWC Varina Woman's Club This Club's Annual Tea and Fashion Show was cancelled due to COVID-19, but they were resourceful and created a GoFundMe page and online auction for the more expensive items that had been donated for their Tea and Fashion Show auction. The goal was met for their philanthropic efforts which supports a scholarship to a graduating high school senior.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: GFWC Woman's Club of Powhatan County Inc, This Club sponsored a "clothes closet", providing clothing, toys, and household items donated by the community to the public at a low cost. It was staffed by members and volunteers. This has been an ongoing project since 1978, but unfortunately was closed permanently in March 2020.

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Essex County, GFWC This Club held a portrait raffle. A member, who is also a portrait painter, donated her time to create a portrait using a photograph provided by the winner of the raffle. Tickets were sold to friends/acquaintances, at a local farmers market and at Club meetings. This highly successful effort helped the club meet its fundraising goals.

Women's History and Resource Center: Chairman Linda Bateman

Small Club (1-20)

Best Overall: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club Updated their history and provided each member with written history, had many programs for Women's Suffrage and the history of the Turning Point Suffragist Memorial.

Best Single Project: GFWC Powhatan Junior Woman's Club Members created a display in a local library to celebrate the anniversary of the 19th amendment for Women's Right to Vote.

Best Single Project Junior: GFWC Powhatan Junior Woman's Club Members created a display in a local library to celebrate the anniversary of the 19th Amendment for Women's Right to Vote.

Medium Club (21-30)

Best Overall: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club The club has a WHRC chairman who focused on GFWC participation of women's suffrage and GFWC newsletter articles. Club history was updated with scrapbooks.

Best Single Project: Henry Clay Woman's Club of GFWC A program that focused on the history of 72 years that it took the Women's Suffrage to get the Amendment that allowed women to vote.

Large Club (31+)

Best Overall: No Award

Best Single Project: Woman's Club of Powhatan County, Inc. Club history was updated along with newsletter history facts.

Newsletter: Chairman Lyn Swallen

General, First Place: Metropolitan Richmond Woman's Club

Junior, First Place: Junior Federated Woman's Club of Chester

General, Second Place: GFWC Ashcake Woman's Club

General, Third Place: GFWC Kanawha Woman's Club

Website: Chairman Pat Jeffress

Lee District Awards for 2020 Club Year Presented March 20, 2021

General, First Place: The Woman's Club of Essex County

Junior, First Place: Junior Federated Woman's Club of Chester

General, Second Place: Henry Clay Woman's Club of GFWC

Junior, Second Place: Midlothian Junior Woman's Club

General, Third Place: GFWC Goochland Woman's Club

Junior, Third Place: River City Juniors