

Tanglewood Ordinary and the GFWC Goochland Woman's Club invite you to an evening with the Marquis de Lafayette.

Thursday, July 5, 2018 6 P.M. Doors open at 5 P.M. (cash bar)

Historical interpreter Charles Wissinger will portray the legendary French aristocrat who fought in the American Revolution and many other engagements on two continents. A fascinating story of a man who began his career at the age of fourteen and became close friends with George Washington, Thomas Jefferson and many more important men of change.

The GFWC Goochland Woman's Club is proud to be the beneficiary of one of Tanglewood Ordinary's Historical Event Dinners. $10 of every ticket will benefit the club, a proud member of GFWC, the oldest and largest woman's club in the world. Serving the community through volunteerism and financial contributions. The GFWC GWC is a 501 (c) 3 organization.

To purchase a ticket please visit: www.ordinary.com or mail a check to Tanglewood Ordinary, one week prior to the event, in the amount of $52.65. Paper tickets will not be sent. Guests will be assigned to tables and checked off as they come in.

The Marquis de Lafayette

Born into nobility and baptized Marie Joseph Paul Yves Roch Gilbert du Motier, the young Marquis sympathized with the colonies in British America. Lafayette was unlike many nobles in that he wanted to protect the rights of the common person.

Congress awarded the Marquis the rank of Major General to serve at General Washington's side and Washington often referred to Lafayette as his adopted son. Learn more on July 5th at the Tanglewood Historical Event Dinner to benefit the GFWC Goochland Woman's Club.
